MINNESOTA THERMAL SCIENCE HONORED WITH WEB HEALTH AWARD

Minnesota Thermal Science was recognized at this year's Web Health Awards for their website.

The Credo Thermal Solutions website www.credothermal.com, designed by Minneapolis based agency Russell Herder, received an Award of Merit in the Medical Equipment/Supply Company category. The new site marked the launch of a series of re-engineered products for the shipping of temperature sensitive materials.

The Web Health Awards is a national program that recognizes the best web-based health-related content for consumers and professionals. The Web Health Awards is organized by the Health Information Resource Center, a national clearinghouse for consumer health information programs and materials.

Russell Herder is an independent marketing communications firm providing award-winning advertising, public relations, interactive, research and media services for a roster of national clients. For more information, visit russellherder.com or call 612.455.2360
